

What Is Our Vision?

Have participants answer the questions below. Ask participants to work in small groups, share their answers and collectively develop one vision statement for the organization. Next, continue to combine the small groups until two vision statements are presented to the organization to consider. The entire team will then select the final vision statement for the organization.

Where does the organization want to be?

What does success look like?

Draft vision statement

Final vision statement
