

Manitoba Women's Institute Provincial Board

Board Members

Michele Gurman, Arbakka^
Heather Cummings, Neepawa ^

Mandate:

The Manitoba Women's Institute Provincial Board is established under The Women's Institute Act. The objects of the institute are to improve the lives of rural women by supporting them through personal development, building leadership skills, family, agriculture, rural development, and community action. The Women's Institute Act 28(2) establishes the composition of the Board.

Authority:

The Women's Institute Act - 28\(2\),
Manitoba Women's Institute Board By-Laws

Responsibilities:

Institute members act as a community resource, working with key community development organizations to accomplish change. The Manitoba Women's Institute works on a project basis in support of the above noted areas of activities.

Membership:

The directors of the board shall be composed of:

- a) a representative of the department over which the Minister of Agriculture presides to serve as staff liaison. The role of the liaison to a governing board is to provide professional expertise and knowledge in an advisory capacity, and to report issues and information back to the department.
- b) a representative from the Faculty of Human Ecology, University of Manitoba;
- c) two women appointed by the minister;
- d) a president;
- e) a president-elect, and
- f) such number of elected directors from specific geographic districts and from the province as may be provided by the by-laws of the board.

Length of Terms:

The two women appointed by the minister shall each serve for a term of up to three (3) years.

Desirable Experience:

While there are no specific educational requirements, board members are expected to demonstrate a commitment to improving the lives of rural women and families.

Time Commitment:

Board meetings are held monthly.

Meetings:

Location: Across province

Frequency: 12 times per year, every second Wednesday of the month during the day starting at 9 am.

Remuneration:

The appointees receive no remuneration from the province